John Schlitt was a great pleasure to work with at Critical Mass Concert in Portage, WI. He was inspiring for the listeners and was full of energy on stage.

Our concert was held outside and though we had the stage covered, it was raining and he handled it without skipping a beat. It was amazing to me that even though we were not a coliseum sized group he made us feel just as important as if we were. His willing spirit of serving the Lord Jesus Christ was evident to me both at the concert event as well as at the church he spoke at the next day. His Christian attitude was with him while he spoke to individuals off stage as he interacted in the crowd.

I would highly suggest him to any sized venue with out hesitation. I give thanks to God for men such as this to encourage the outpouring of the spirit through music as well as speaking it though words and living it though life.

Yours in Christ,

Marilyn Jahn
